

Quail Valley Garden Club 2010 Holiday Lighting Winners

Quail Valley is certainly welcoming this year with its festive lighting. This year we divided the lights into three categories:

Hope . . . lights that give us hope for the future and tie in our traditions of the past.

Winner:

- Sue and Dave Adam, 2911 Nancy Bell Lane (off El Dorado)

Honorable Mention:

- Kay and Steve Grooms, 2918 Carnoustie Drive (off Crow Valley)

Joy . . . as seen through a child's eyes with toys, fantasy, and good cheer.

Winner:

- Gayle and Mike Combs, 3119 Stoney Brook Lane (off East Creek Club)

Honorable Mention:

- Patrick & Adrienne Villreal-Mathews, 3102 Silver Springs Court (off East Creek Club)

Faith . . . those displays depicting the original Christmas story or tie into the origins of it.

Winner:

- Jane and Bob Thompson, 3214 El Dorado Boulevard

Honorable Mention:

- Monica and Lenny Doucett, 3107 Villa Lane (off East Creek Club)

Editor's Choice:

Sondra and Mickey Winborne
3102 Oak Leaf Court (off East Creek Club)

And don't miss Boca Court at Kiamesha . . . how these neighbors cooperate and feature interconnected lights and their Christmas Card theme is special. Drive around and enjoy!

Happy Holidays
The Quail Valley Garden Club

<http://traction.typepad.com/qvgc/holiday-lighting-winners/>